

FURTHER CUT MADE IN THE CITY RATE

Council Decides on Levy of 70 Cents After Slashing Appropriations to Reduce Expenses

TOTAL REDUCTION 30 CENTS

Charles Brossman of Indianapolis Engaged to Draw Plans for New Electrical Unit

The tax rate for the city of Rushville was definitely fixed Monday night at the special meeting of the city council, when a levy of 70 cents for 1926 was agreed upon, a reduction of 5 cents from the proposed levy as adopted a few weeks ago.

The reduction to 70 cents was made possible by slashing the various appropriations to an extremely low point, which may not tide over some of the departments next year, it was said. The proposed levy of 75 cents would net $68,700, while the 70 cents levy will net only $65,398.50.

The city required $82,000 to operate this year, and the reduction next year was made possible by cutting down the cost of operation in several departments, including the salary of the city clerk's office, attorney's office, supplies for material on streets, police department and other places. The appropriation for the police department next year will not be adequate enough to maintain the present force.

The ordinance calling for the adoption of the 70 cent levy was unanimously passed, and other business set for the special session proceeded.

Only one bid was presented for the curb and gutter contract for Eleventh street. This bid was submitted by Smith and Company, road contractors of Greensfield. Their bid was 90 cents a foot for the combined curb and gutter. The firm also has a bid in with the county commissioners for the paving contract, and the bid on the curb and gutter was made upon condition that the contract for the street paving is awarded them. For this reason, no

WLW ANNOUNCER IS RUSH COUNTY MAN

Fred Smith of Crosley Radio Station at Cincinnati is Related Locally

VOICE FAMILIAR TO MANY

Fred Smith, chief announcer in the main broadcasting studio of WLW, Crosley Radio Corporation station in Cincinnati, whose voice is probably heard more by local radio listeners than any other "on the air" is a product of Rush county, having been born near Clarksburg.

Little do ardent Rushville fans realize when they hear the peculiar, high pitched nasal sounding voice from WLW that it is the voice of Mr. Smith, who has many relatives living in Rush county. Mrs. Sally Smith, his mother, lives in Clarksburg and the announcer also has a sister, Mrs. George Moore, living near that place. Otis Miller, prominent farmer of Richland township, is a brother-in-law of Smith.

Mr. Smith is one of the most popular announcers in America and has probably been heard by more persons than any other man in the business, because the Crosley station, whose power works is located at Harrison, O., near the Indiana line, is by far the strongest station in the country.

Just recently, within the last two weeks, Mr. Smith returned to the station from abroad where he had been sent by the corporation to study radio broadcasting in Europe, especially in England, and the peculiar voice which was missed for such a long time by the "bugs" was welcomed back again with pleasure. Smith is noted for his humorous quips in his usual announcements, and his "line" keeps the invisible audience in merriment. He has an excellent voice for broadcast, as it is clear and distinct.

COMMISSIONERS, COUNCIL MEETING

Former Leaves Free Gravel Road Bond Levy at 12 Cents, as Tentatively Fixed Aug. 24

APPROPRIATIONS TAKEN UP

Council Will Not Appropriate Funds or Fix County Tax Levy Until Wednesday

The county auditor's office was a busy place today, with the commissioners and council both in session, the former to award the contract for the Eleventh street paving project and the latter to make a deficiency and to consider appropriations for 1926.

The commissioners opened the bids for paving Eleventh street Monday afternoon, but withheld action until today on account of Monday being a holiday. The commissioners also finally passed on the budget and levy for the free gravel road repair fund and the township free gravel road bond and interest fund as adopted at their August session.

The commissioners decided this afternoon not to award the Eleventh street contract until Saturday. The council will not act finally on 1926 appropriations until Wednesday on account of a law limiting appropriations in any one day by the council to $15,000. It was expected, however, that the council would practically agree on the appropriations today and return Wednesday for further consideration and passage of the appropriation ordinance.

The council was also expected to make a deficiency appropriation today to carry through the year several funds that were short.

The council adopted a budget calling for the appropriation of $113,096, at its meeting August 24, and fixed the tentative county tax rate at fourteen cents which, if finally adopted, will represent an increase of five cents over this year.

The proposed rate, according to the budget, will raise $69,871, and the balance of the money estimated to be needed next year will come from a balance of $30,000 in the general fund left over this year and $13,225 available from other sources than taxation.

The commissioners left the free gravel road repair fund at twelve cents for 1926, which is the same as this year and will raise $61,000. The budget calls for the expenditure

LIQUOR CAR CRASHES INTO ANOTHER AUTO

Omer Adams, The Driver, Arrested On Two Charges in Circuit Court and Provides Bond

LIQUOR FOUND IN HIS CAR

Omer Adams of this city is at liberty on $2,000 bail, following his arrest Saturday night by officers when his machine that he was driving is said to have struck a car driven by Elmer French of Knights-town, on state highway 36, just northeast of Rushville.

The defendant is held in the circuit court on a charge of transporting liquor, and for the illegal possession of liquor. Prosecutor Ketchum stated that two additional charges would probably be filed.

Officers were called to the scene of the wreck Saturday night. Sheriff Hunt and Police Chief Blackburn stated that they had some difficulty in arresting him. He was released from jail without bond by Mayor Thomas Sunday morning, according to Prosecutor Ketchum, who then refilled the charges in the circuit court where Judge Sparks placed his bond at $2,000.

The cases in the circuit court have been set for trial September 17.

Both machines were said to have suffered in the accident, but the occupants of the cars were not injured. A small portion of alleged liquor was found in the machine, and which was responsible for the arrest.

SEPTEMBER TERM COURT IS OPENED

First Day's Session Results in Action in Ninety Cases Pending for Hearings

ACTION IN DIVORCE SUIT

Judge Sparks Refuses Albert L. Allen New Trial and Defendant Files Motion to Appeal

Circuit court opened Monday for the September term, and a busy session was held the first day, when the various court dockets were reviewed and the issues called. In all there were 90 notations made in various court cases, many of them being minor court rulings.

The jury will probably be called for service Monday when a state case is scheduled. The case of the state against Jesse Gephart, charged with larceny, was set for trial Wednesday, but will not be tried as the case was dismissed because of lack of evidence.

Some of the important notations on the civil docket, are as follows, which includes dismissal in several actions:

Grover F. White vs Leslie B. Brown, complaint on a note, dismissed.

Della Ryan vs Frank M. Warner, complaint for possession of real estate, dismissed.

Complaint of Charles H. Tompkins against Oliver G. Hudson, evidence heard, and judgment for the plaintiff on a note for $156.04 and costs.

Arguments heard by attorneys seeking new trial in the divorce suit of Sadie Allen against Albert L. Allen, in which the defendant filed the motion remonstrating against an alleged excessive amount of alimony. Court refused a new trial. Defendant filed a motion for an appeal to a higher court, which was granted and the appeal bond was placed at $20,000.

Clara B. Sweet vs Owen Sweet, a complaint for divorce, was dismissed.

The case of the Pinnell-Tompkins Lumber company against Walter T. Vandament and Samuel L. Newsom, a suit to foreclose on a mechanics lien, was dismissed.

In the case of Charles F. Taylor Company against Fred H. Dagler, a suit on a note, the evidence was heard, and judgment rendered for $94.60 and costs.

The complaint of Donald Cook against Ben Wilson, a suit for damages, was set for trial September 17. (Continued on Page Six)

STATE SCHOOLS ARE BEING HANDICAPPED

Paul V. McNutt, Dean of Indiana Law Schools, Discusses Parsimonious Attitude in Indiana

VALUE OF HIGHER EDUCATION

Speaker Points Out How I. U. Has Suffered Through Loss of Men and Lack of Facilities

The parsimonious attitude of the state legislature toward Indiana's schools of higher education was the theme of an address before the Rotary club today noon by Paul V. McNutt, dean of the Indiana Law school, a part of Indiana university, and he dealt more particularly with the plight of the school with which he is associated.

Mrs. Carl F. Beher and Mrs. Derby Green sang a group of songs. Mrs. George Hogsett playing the piano accompaniment. The popular vocalists received a most cordial welcome, as they always do in singing before Rushville gatherings, and the vigorous applause showed the appreciation of those who enjoyed the music.

Mr. McNutt was introduced by Louis Mauzy, who was a classmate at I. U.

At the outset of his address, Mr. McNutt alluded to the Rushville Rotary club's educational fund, and commented on the work that is being done by Indiana Rotarians in helping worthy boys and girls to acquire an education.

"It is the true Rotary service," he said, "and when I tell you that over 25 percent of the students in Indiana university are working their way through school wholly or in part, you may realize how much good you can do."

Mr. McNutt questioned the value of the budget system, upon which the university has been operated for many years, and said he was

NEW ATTENDANCE OFFICER NAMED

Mrs. Earl Chamberlain Elected by Board of Education on Supt. Farthing's Recommendation

ALL SCHOOLS OPEN MONDAY

Music Program for Year Presented and Various Contests are Discussed by the Board

Mrs. Carolyn Chamberlain, 309 East Seventh street, wife of Earl Chamberlain, principal of the Junior high school of this city, was the unanimous choice of the county board of education Monday afternoon, when she was recommended by Supt. B. D. Farthing for the office of county attendance officer.

Mrs. Chamberlain assumed her new duties at once Monday, following her acceptance to the position. She appeared before the board and made a talk, in which she pledged herself to the work and asked cooperation of the board in putting over the attendance program for the new school year.

Mrs. Chamberlain is a democrat by politics, and her appointment ends a controversy over the office, as the twelve township trustees are equally divided politically. The Rushville city school board, entitled to a vote in the selection, was represented by E. R. Casady. Her appointment was recommended by Supt. Farthing, and was made unanimous.

The county board of education was in session for the regular September meeting. All of the schools of the county were reported to have opened on schedule Monday morning, and school officials are expecting a big school year.

The music program for the year was presented and discussed. Miss Alice Piersol, county music supervisor, was given a pledge of confidence, not only by the board members, but by the pupils and patrons.

Miss Mary Sleeth, librarian, presented the library program for the year. The county schools are to further the plan conceived last year, that of the circulating library. It proved its worth for the short time the plan was in use last year, they assert, and the board is of the opinion that it has a bright future so far as the schools are concerned.

The attendance program and problems were presented to the board and discussion of the different phases was taken up. Supt. Farthing outlined the school program to the board for the new school year, and set out his policies.

Attention was called to contests to be given in the county such as

BOY BLAMES THREE AND THEN CONFESSES

Edgar Scofield, 17, Admits Passing Forged Checks and Three Prisoners are Released

JAIL BREAKER CAPTURED

Leon Ridout, the 17 year old jail breaker, who saved his way out of the county jail one day last week, is again back behind the bars, as he was picked up on the streets early this morning by Patrolman Everman. The youth had left the city after his escape, but returned, it is said, and the officer found him wandering in the northwest part of the city early today. The youth is detained on a larceny charge and will probably be arraigned soon in the circuit court.

Another 17 year old youth, Edgar Scofield, is detained in jail following his arrest last Friday on a charge of forgery, and has confessed to the affair, according to Police Chief Blackburn.

The boy at first stated that Arthur Snider and Frank Price were in with him on the deal, but he afterwards denied this, and the two were released. The boy then said that he was sent by Mrs. Mamie Weaver Leisure, to cash the checks, and she was arrested Saturday afternoon. After a stiff questioning, the boy is said to have made an utter confession and shouldered all of the blame himself, and Mrs. Leisure was released.

action was taken, and the council will await the decision of the county commissioners.

The special meeting last night also was for the purpose of receiving bids on the exterior finish of the city building. Charley Stamm of Glenwood was the only bidder and was awarded the contract for a pebbled finish stucco at $865. His alternate bid for stucco was $615.

The council listened for an hour to Charles Brossman of Indianapolis, a consulting engineer, who was afterwards awarded the contract for advising the city in regards to the purchase of new equipment for the electric light plant. The consulting engineer will draw plans, specifications and assist in the selection of the new unit. For performing the service, he will receive five percent of the cost of the equipment.

He will make the survey of the plant at once, and conduct an investigation into the needs and requirements for the local plant. It is expected that the new electrical unit will be completed by the first of the year, and the proposed cost will be approximately $40,000.

How the Kerosene Market Tattles on Poor Gasoline Quality

IF you harbor the idea that ordinary motor-fuel of common brand is "good enough" for summer use, grasp this significant fact. Right today, so much kerosene is being used to dilute these so-called gasolines that the kerosene market is kept several cents too high because of this left-handed diverting of its output.

The legitimate buyer of kerosene — the tractor user, industrial plant owner, or transportation operator — is paying a kerosene premium to weaken and pad out the fuel you are unblushingly asked to buy as fit gasoline for your motor!

Silver Flash Gasoline

is by nature prohibited from embodying kerosene, in its make-up. It is the clear quill, undiluted, devoid of free carbon and minus the disastrous unburned kerosene drippage that insidiously thins out your car's oil supply.

For economy, better daily running, and final car condition, employ Real Gasoline invariably and consistently, because no kerosenish fuel can be "good enough" for ANY season, let alone summer when your car is in greatest use.

A State Lodge Home

A campaign is being organized to locate the Indiana Knights of Pythias home at Rushville. In view of the fact that a site for the proposed home will likely be selected at the Indiana grand lodge meeting early next month, some very rapid work will have to be done in order to make a bid for the institution.The idea of attempting to bring the home to Rushville is not new. It has been discussed informally by local citizens all summer, but those who are leading the movement believed that a short, intensive campaign would be more fruitful than a long, drawn-out one.Rushville can qualify as a strong applicant for the home, because of its many assets, if the community will respond to the appeal for pledges which will be made.Rushville's location is a distinct advantage; also the fertility of the soil in the vicinity of the city, the high class of its citizenship, its good railroad facilities and its good schools. These are all factors that will undoubtedly be taken into consideration when a site is being selected.While it is true that other cities equally as well located will make a strong bid for the home, it remains for Rushville to make even a stronger one. The size of the pledge which is made will no doubt be an important item, because it will determine in large measure just how badly each community wants the home.Rushville had stood idly by and seen two state homes located by its next-door neighbors in very recent years—the Odd Fellows' home at Greensburg and the Masonic home at Franklin. This community made no effort to acquire either one.But now Rushville is awake to the value of having such an institution and will make a determined effort to get the K. of P. home.The campaign shortly to be started will be independent of the Rushville lodge, which has already over-subscribed its quota for the home and was the first in the state to report pledges from all of its members.

Uniform Traffic Laws

Tabulation of more than two thousand questionnaires from members of a fraternal order who formed an automobile caravan to Washington, D.
C., showed an overwhelming endorsement of uniform traffic regulation, particularly uniform systems of signaling to other cars and uniform road signs.The need of uniformity in traffic regulations and signs has been felt by automobile tourists, but no such evidence of the wide-spread demand for this advanced step in automobile legislation has ever before been accumulated.Those who participated in the automobile tour came from thirty-seven states and thus were representative of the prevailing sentiment in the United States on this subject.The advantages of uniformity in signaling, signs and speed laws are readily seen. The tourist traveling from one state to another is confused by the wide variance in motorregulations and is in constant danger of violating them because of unfamiliarity with their terms.How to accomplish the uniformity that is desired is a problem that deserves the attention of the states.
The congress is without authority to legislate in the matter. Some means will have to be devised to work out a uniform system, with recomendations that it be adopted by every state.The growing popularity of automobile touring makes some improvement in this direction imperative.

The Mentally Deficient

With alarming frequency the country is shocked by a brutal murder
that is committed by one mentally deficient, yet not showing signs of insanity to such a degree that detention seems advisable.Human life is too precious to permit people who exhibit symptoms
of mental weakness their freedom.
It is no place for sentiment or sympathy.An innocent little girl of six years was cruelly slain by a twenty year-old Harvard student at Montclair, N. J. He had no motive for the crime, and he gave no reason.
But he was once an inmate of an asylum.He was dismissed from the institution as cured, but the evidence is that he was not, else he could not have committed murder.It is time that sane people awake
to the dangers that exist in practically every community from permitting such types as this young man to be at large.FIFTEEN YEARS

Stewart Letter

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service WriterWASHINGTON — Every body knew President Coolidge was thrifty, but even for him it was "going some" to evolve a scheme by which the government's to get $100,000,000 worth of public buildings without spending anything—in fact, in the long run saving money. Exploited, however, it's a shame.To begin with, the government has about half as much room as it needs to accommodate suitably, its numerous personnel in Washington.Of the other half about 50 per cent are quartered in a lot of war-rented shacks that never were meant to be anything but temporary and now are on the verge of falling flat down if they're not torn down.
For the remaining workers rented office room is provided.THE president wants to get the war shacks' occupants into regular, permanent buildings
before their present roofs collapse on them. He wants also to cutoff the $20,000,000 to $25,000,000 item which the government now pays annually in rentals.
What he asked would be the cost of putting up the necessary structures to house the entire outfit in the style the government ought to maintain its buildings in.
The answer, estimated, was $100, 000,000.THE presidential soul revolted at the thought of taking any such sum out of the government's pocket. Wasn't there some way of getting the buildings without doing it? The president began figuring. We won't appropriate $100,000,000, he said to himself; we'll issue long term 4 per cent bonds for it.The interest will be $5,000,000 annually. Thus our housing problem will be solved and we'll be saving each year the difference between $5,000,000 interest and $20,000,000 to $25,000,000 rentals, or $15,000,000 to $20,000,000.At the end of a dozen years at most this saving will amount to enough to pay off our $100,000,000 bond issue. Then we'll have our buildings cost free, and can be to economy.be paid the same as last year on the principal of the court house bonds."It was great" was an expression

MOVIE NOTES

"The Monster," Castle

For those who like their pictures
generously sprinkled with thrills, and spiced with mystery, there is
"The Monster," a Metro-Goldwyn
picture produced by Roland West Productions, Inc., which will start a two day run today at the Castle theatre.Lon Chaney plays the title role,
and his characterization of Dr. Ziska, the mad surgeon, is said to rival that of his Quasimodo in "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" and his elbow in "He Who Gets Slapped."Johnny Arthur, the stage comedian, is the hero; a blundering, helpless young man who aspires to become a detective, and win the love of Betty Watson, the town beauty.
She is also being courted by another young man, and the mysterious disappearance of the town's wealthiest citizen gives Johnny an opportunity to cover himself with glory,
by solving the mystery.Gertrude Olmsted, the prize beauty of the Elks contest, has the role of Betty Watson, the girl for whom two young men risk dan- and the terrors of ghostly powers.The story is Roland West's own adaptation of the stage success of Crane Wilbur, and is an unusually thrilling mystery melodrama with mystery electrical inventions, sliding panels, steel doors, caves, dark chutes and every possible situation
to make chills run up anticipatory spines.

"Fine Clothes" Princess

John M. Stahl's production of "Fine Clothes" is to be presented by Louis B. Mayer through First National at the Princess theatre today.The story, placed in England, tells of the trials and tribulations of the owner of a small shop in the heart of London.Betrayed by his wife, cheated by an employee, duped by a friend, his outlook on life is considerably dulled. But brightness comes from an unexpected quarter.Percy Marmont, Anna Robens, Lewis Stone, Raymond Griffith, Ed-
een Percy and William V. Mong are in the big cast.This is the first Stahl offering on his new agreement with Louis B.
Mayer and First National, and follows a long line of successful productions guided by him, including
"The Dangerous Age" and "Husbands and Lovers."

LOCALS WALLOPED SUNDAY, LABOR DAY

Newcastle Chrysler Even up for Defeat Here by Pounding Castleman and Winning, 16 to 5

ERRORS FIGURE IN SCORE

Also Responsible for Defeat by Connersville Here Monday—Byrne Poles Out a Homer

The Rushville Tail Lights suffered two defeats Sunday and Labor Day, losing to the Newcastle Chrysler, whom they defeated here, 16 to 5, and to Connersville yesterday, 3 to 2.

Castleman was on the mound at Newcastle and was pounded freely and hard, but he had very little support in the field. The Tail Lights hit the ball well, but their fielding was ragged.

Poor support behind Shaw was responsible for Connersville's victory here. Cooley's curves were breaking good and the locals hit safely only four times, but one of them was a home run by Byrne in the first inning. Errors figured in Connersville scoring two runs in the first.

CANNING WITH ARRELL

Byrnes "Luck" to Pirates

By HENRY L. FARRELL (United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Sept. 2.—Little Johnny Rawlings, veteran of more than a score of bitter diamond battles, is known around the National League circuit as "Lucky Johnny." Not only is there believed to be some kind of a charm attached to him but the players feel that he brings luck to any team with which he is playing.

Rawlings always seems to pop up as a star in the most critical extremes and he always delivers in the tightest crisis.

He had been in a very insignificant place on the bench of the Pittsburgh Pirates all season until the team came to New York for a series with the Giants which practically cinched the championship for the Pirates.

He had appeared in only five games all season and when he was sent out to fill in for Eddie Moore at second base, a veteran in the press box at the Polo Grounds remarked: "Rawlings!—I didn't know he was with the Pirates."

He was very much with the Pirates in that series. He won the fourth and most important game of the series with a double in a pinch and he saved the game several times with the most spectacular fielding that was reminiscent of his work in the world's series with the Giants several years ago when he was filling in at second base.

Rawlings is one of those rare money players who is worth a fortune to a ball club. Without him, the Pirates might have lost the series as Max Carey, one of the big stars of the team was out of the game and Moore was stale and had to be benched.

John McGraw's old axiom that a team is no stronger than its reserves was applied by the Pirates in that series. The Pirates were no stronger than Johnny Rawlings and Johnny was plenty strong.

Nothing but the most radical reversal of form or a catastrophe can keep the Pirates out of the world's series this year and it will be a good thing for baseball.

The enthusiasm with which the victory of the Washington Senators was received showed that the fans were fed up with New York champions. There was, of course, a lot of sentiment for Walter Johnson and Buck Harris, but there was a general current of satisfaction that the Yankees had lost rather than the Senators had won.

The Pirates will be popular champions as they are a great ball club, a club patterned after the hard hitting fast base running clubs of the day before the lively ball when players had to do more than walk around the bases in front of a home run.

There seems to be a tendency in the east to discount the claim of Fidel La Barba, the 1924 Olympic champion, to the world's flyweight championship. If the decision over Frankie Genaro had been given in a New York ring, there would have been no hesitation in recognizing La Barba's victory. But there seems to be a disposition in New York to ignore that anything that doesn't happen in New York doesn't happen at all.

La Barba has a legitimate claim to the world's championship and he ought to be recognized as the champion. He must have won fairly because the decision was given to him by Harry Erbe, Jersey City referee, who was taken to California by Genaro to assure him of a fair deal.

In beating Genaro, La Barba beat a fighter who had beaten Pancho Villa, the former world's champion two times and he also beat Johnny McGraw who defeated Villa in his last fight.

A Go-Away-to-College service was held at the Main Street Christian church Sunday morning and present and former college students made the addresses on various phases of the question of a college education.

The Rev. B. E. Cato presided and the scripture lesson was read by H. B. Allman, superintendent of the Rushville public schools.

MARTYRS OF THE MR DUNED

Washington, Sept. 2.—Three navy officers, who gave their lives in the crash of the Shenandoah, were buried with the martial heroes of the nation, on the heights of Arlington cemetery, at 11 a. m. today as the navy department pursued to investigate to determine the scientific reason of the catastrophe. Lieutenant Commander Lansdowne was to be buried at 3 p. m.

A simple sailor funeral preceded the national salute as the bodies of Lieutenant Commander Louis Hancock, executive officer, Lieutenant J. B. Lawrence, senior watch officer, and Lieutenant E. W. Sheppard, were lowered into the grave.

The martyrs of the air were placed in the Dewey section of the cemetery close by the grave of Louise Maxfield, who died in the crash of the ZR-2 in England.

CARTHAGE TEAM PLAYS IN TWO GOOD BATTLES

Defeats Master Team of Newcastle Sunday 11 to 3, But is Beaten Monday by Westwood

WITH SCORE OF 11 TO 8

The Carthage Specials broke even over the week end in two games of baseball, defeating the Hoosiers of Newcastle at Carthage Sunday, 11 to 3, but losing to the Westwood Cubs on Monday 11 to 8.

In the game Sunday, Delashmit, hurling his last game of the season for Carthage as he has re-entered school, let the visitors down with five hits, and had 9 strike outs. Griffith and Johnson were pitchers for the Newcastle team.

On Monday the Westwood Cubs got away to a 9 to 1 lead in the second inning, and Hahn buried a fine game for them. Mathers was in the box for Carthage, the team having three regulars out. The Specials scored four runs in the sixth, making the count 11 to 8. The visitors lineup included Voach, Shellhouse, Sprinkle, Polk, Holliday, Crim, Johnson, Buck M. and Pete Reese, Murray and Hahn, most of them being from Newcastle, and some of them on the Chrysler team.

There seems to be a tendency in the east to discount the claim of Fidel La Barba, the 1924 Olympic champion, to the world's flyweight championship. If the decision over Frankie Genaro had been given in a New York ring, there would have been no hesitation in recognizing La Barba's victory. But there seems to be a disposition in New York to ignore that anything that doesn't happen in New York doesn't happen at all.

willing to submit to the men listening to him whether it was a better policy to permit the trustees to determine the needs of the university, or the legislature, the action of which is dictated by the whims of politics.

As an example, he referred to the last session of the legislature when Pres. Bryan of I. U. told the budget committee the greatest need at the university was a power plant. The legislature gave the university a new wing on the library, but there is no way provided to heat it, he pointed out, and it is of no value.

"Public education is a fundamental principal of our country," Mr. McNutt asserted, "and the children of Indiana are entitled to the best." He said they were not getting it, however, because of the short-sighted attitude in regard to state schools.

More than 500 students were refused admittance to I. U. last fall, Mr. McNutt pointed out, due to lack of equipment and facilities and indications are from 500 to 1,000 will not be permitted to enroll this fall.

Mr. McNutt showed that Indiana stood at the foot of the list with reference to support of state schools of higher education, and by example after example, he pointed out how Indiana's faculty had suffered through loss of valuable men to other universities, due to pitifully small salaries paid.

"And men are irreplaceable," he commented, in showing that some of the men lost by I. U. had added to the wealth of the states where they went many times more than their salaries.

In conclusion, he alluded to the service Indiana university is rendering to the business world through its chemistry and other departments and referred to the contribution scholars and scientists have made to the world.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCORE BOARD

The Washington Senators virtually clinched the American League championship when they took a double header from the Philadelphia Athletics 2 to 1 and 7 to 6 and increased their lead to nine full games.

Lon Gehrig's homer brought in the only run the Yankees were able to get off Ehme and the Red Sox won 5 to 4. Babe Ruth returned to the lineup and fanned twice.

The Reds and the Cards divided a double header, the Reds winning the first game 8 to 6 and dropping the second 5 to 1. Rogers Hornsby hit his 36th homer in the second game.

After winning the first game 8 to 5, the Pittsburgh Pirates were tossed out in the tenth and dropped the second game to the Cubs 9 to 8. Harry Heiman's double in the ninth gave the Tigers a 7 to 6 victory over the Browns in the first game but they lost the second game 4 to 3. Doyle finished both games for Detroit and was scored for a victory and a defeat.

The Indians split a double bill with the White Sox, winning the first 6 to 5 and losing the second 5 to 0.

"And men are irreplaceable," he commented, in showing that some of the men lost by I. U. had added to the wealth of the states where they went many times more than their salaries.

So Was Mrs. Sutton Who Tells Her Experience

Are you tired all the time; worn-out night and day? Does your back ache as if it would break? Do you suffer dizziness, headaches, rheumatic twinges or distressing urinary disorders? You have good cause, then to be alarmed about your kidneys. Do as many of your townfolk recommend. Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. This Rushville case is convincing.

Mrs. Wm. Sutton, 613 W. Third St., says: "Backache wore me out. Severe attacks of headaches came often and I also became dizzy and spots before my eyes blurred my sight. My kidneys didn't act often enough, so I used Doan's Pills, from Pitman & Wilson's Drug Store and they cured me of kidney trouble."

OVER 2500 ATTEND REVIVAL AT FAIRVIEW

The revival at the Fairview Christian church, which has been in progress for the past two weeks was brought to a close Sunday night. While there were no accessions to the church, yet everyone voiced the conviction that it was one of the most successful meetings that has been held in years. A grand total of over 2500 were in attendance at all the services.

The largest attendance for any one service was on last Wednesday night, when Harrisburg came with a fine delegation of sixty, and took complete charge of the music. Two hundred and forty-two were present at this meeting. Out of about twenty-five different churches represented during the meeting, Harrisburg had the largest delegation. On Thursday night, the Rev. Mr. Hart saw of Glenwood was present with several members of his congregation and also the Rev. and Mrs. Shaul of Arlington, who furnished some very fine musical numbers. Friday night the male chorus from New Lisbon, Ind., assisted with the music. No revival could have had a finer spirit of cooperation from neighboring churches than Fairview has had.

Sunday was one of the biggest days of the meeting in spite of the stormy weather at night. A total of 474 was in attendance at the entire day's services. At the morning service the Young Ladies quartet, under the direction of Mrs. Irene Fadely, sang four beautiful numbers.

PROBABLY WILL NOT BE BROUGHT TO TRIAL

Harrison Noel, Confessed Slayer of Six-Year-Old Girl, to be Examined For Sanity

HAD BEEN IN INSANE HOSPITAL

Reasons For His Being at Large Subject of State Inquiry—Father New York Attorney

Newark, N. J., Sept. 8.—(AP)—Harrison Noel probably never will be brought to trial for his crimes, police officers said today as the prosecution paved the way for his examination by a lunacy commission. The 20-year old kidnapper and confessed slayer of Mary Daly, six, was termed "hopelessly insane" by Captain James F. Mason, who aided in extracting the confession.

Meanwhile the reasons for Noel's being at large were the subject of state inquiry. The youth, son of a prominent New York lawyer, had been a patient at the Essex hospital for the insane at Overbrook, Bellevue hospital in New York, and Craig Sanitarium at Beacon, N. Y.

The board of free holders of this county will meet at Overbrook next week to fix responsibility for Noel's release. Police Chief Edward Reilly of Mont Clair declared that Dix W. Noel, the father, was to blame for the youth's discharge from Bellevue, having signed an affidavit avowing responsibility for his son's actions.

Noel was brought to the county jail here from Mont Clair after entering a plea of guilty to a charge of kidnapping and of not guilty to a charge of murdering Raymond Pierce, negro taxicab driver, whose car was used in the abduction.

Two other major crime charges face the youth. In Passaic county he is to be arranged on charges of murdering the Daly girl and of a atrocious assault with intent to kill in connection with the shooting of John Sandine, a chauffeur who pursued him.

Noel presents an odd pathological study. He is at times sullen and cowering. At other times he is straight-forward and resolute. Occasionally there comes to his face an inspired grin and his eyes stare blankly.

How the slayer celebrated his killing of Mary Daly was revealed by neighbors. Fresh from his crimes, he raced home from the woods in his car, red-faced and sweating. He sat at the family piano and for an hour there tumbled from the instrument a frenzied burst of fantastic chords—classical and jazz, absurdly jumbled.

Previous instances of Noel's violent moods have come to light. He had made three vicious attacks upon persons since, in 1922, he developed Cataplexy dementia praecox. He attempted to kill his father with a hatchet, he beat an attendant at the Beacon Sanitarium into insensibility and a year ago while "working his way to Europe," he tried to kill a cook on the steamship George Washington.

The funeral of Mary will be held today. David Daly and his wife, parents of the child, have secluded themselves since Mary's lifeless body, pierced by two bullets, was brought home from Mountain View. The body had been placed in a clump of bushes.

They came from the Middletown Christian church. The Rev. H. R. Swearingen preached from the subject, "Paying the Price." At night, the Boosters quartet from this city delighted the audience with three very fitting numbers. The Rev. Mr. Swearingen preached his final sermon from the subject, "The Old Time Religion."

At all the services Walter Saxon very efficiently directed the songs and Mrs. Wilbur Gibbs assisted at the piano.

NEW ATTENDANCE OFFICER NAMED

Continued from Page One Latin, English, Music and Oratorical, and the trustees were urged to have their schools show an active part in them during the school terms. Stress was laid especially upon the oratorical and music contests. Superintendent Farthing also called attention to the two Indiana university scholarships issued every year to pupils of this county and urged more interest on the part of trustees and school principals in encouraging students to strive for the free tuitions. Only one of them was accepted this year.

"SHEPHERD'S HEY"

(By Percy Grainger 1862 Melbourne, Australia)

This clever arrangement of old English Morris tunes was made by Percy Grainger the Australian composer. Mr. Grainger is devoting his particular attention to folk music and his settings of old dance tunes are of great value and interest. Shepherd's Hey, while not intended to be used as a regular Morris Dance, is a combination of old airs, which Mr. Grainger obtained from Cecil J. Sharp the famous authority on Old English Country Dances, who collect them from old country fiddlers in different parts of England.

The "Hey" of "Hay" is an old form of English country dance. It seems to have had reference to the word for hedge, the dancers in two rows like hedge rows, now described as "longways for as many as will" in distinction from the circle formation.

While not a Morris dance it has been used. This is made up of four gladsome play spirit of the English country dances.

WOMAN AVOIDS AN OPERATION

Awful Pains and Misery Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lima, Ohio.—"I want to tell you how your medicine has helped me. For weeks I suffered with awful pains from inflammation and I was in such misery that I had to bend double to get relief. I could not be touched or jarred, had awful pain all over my abdomen and could not touch my feet to the floor. It was impossible for me to straighten up and the pains never ceased. I took treatments for some time and finally was told I would have to have an operation. I do not believe in operations and I had read so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I told my husband I would try it before I gave up. I soon began to feel that it was doing me good. The awful misery began to leave me, also the backache. I have a good appetite and am gaining in weight. Taking this medicine was the best thing I ever did. I feel like it has saved my life and I do not hesitate to say so to my friends. At least it has saved me from a dreaded operation and I am still taking it. I am willing to answer letters from women asking about the medicine." — Mrs. ETHEL THURSTON, 324 North Pine St., Lima, Ohio.

FIFTY NATIONS REPRESENTED

Sixth Annual Assembly of League of Nations Convened at Eleven O'clock Monday

MOST IMPORTANT IN HISTORY

To Discuss Admission of Germany and Turkey into League and Launching of Security Pact

By HENRY WOOD
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Geneva, Sept. 8.—With nearly fifty nations represented, the Sixth Annual Assembly of the League of Nations convened here Monday in the now famous "Reformation Hall," which has witnessed all of the assemblies of the League to date.

The Assembly, which will be in session for at least a month, is expected to be the most important one in the history of the League.

Interest will center largely in two great questions: first, the admission of Germany and Turkey as members of the League; and secondly, in the launching of a security pact that will probably take the form of a protocol declaring all aggressive warfare an international crime and pledging all nations to accept obligatory arbitration instead of war as means of settling disputes.

Besides these two questions which will dominate all of the sessions of the Assembly and its principal commissions, there are some twenty other items on the agenda covering the whole field of political, technical and humanitarian activities of the League.

Geneva was gay with the flags of all nations as the delegations early Monday morning began vying their way to the Assembly Hall. The delegations this year included an unusually large number of foreign ministers and the most distinguished statesmen of the various countries represented in the League.

Although the machinery necessary for the conducting of a League assembly is of the most complicated and extensive nature, five years of experience has so perfected it that the Assembly this morning was able to settle down on schedule time and start off its work with clock-work regularity.

Following the election of the president and the adoption of the agenda, the Assembly proceeded to the appointment of the six general commissions to which all questions on the agenda are referred for preliminary study.

If, as is confidently expected, Germany and Turkey ask for admission to the League during the present session, a new epoch will be marked both in the history of the League and in the present European political situation generally.

It is freely admitted that the application of Germany and Turkey for membership would meet with virtually no opposition whatsoever, so that the question of their becoming members rests with them alone.

FATE KIND TO THIS FAMILY

A new baby arrived Sunday at the Akron (O.) home of Franklin Masters, chief petty officer of the ill-fated Shenandoah. As soon as he heard the news he obtained permission to make a parachute leap over Akron and visit his new son when the big dirigible passed over there on its return from the middle west. But fate was kind to Masters and his family. He miraculously escaped unscathed from the wreckage by dropping from a girder as the Shenandoah struck the ground. Above are Mr. and Mrs. Masters and their other two children.

In the event of the admission the League would then embrace every European nation except Russia. With the possibility of the League attaining the world wide universality originally intended rendered impossible by the refusal of the United States to join, the next most important end for the League is that of European universality.

The admission of Germany and Turkey at the present time would render it possible for the League to take up at once a whole program of political, economical, and commercial reconstruction for Europe that is impossible as long as Germany is not working within the League.

With every European nation in the League, except Russia, it would mean the first foundation stone for what it is hoped by many may be eventually The United States of Europe.

Equally important as the admission of Germany and Turkey, however, will be the Assembly's action on the question of arbitration, security and disarmament.

Despite the action of England last March in rejecting the famous Geneva protocol, the latter has steadily refused to die and the question is even more insistent and urgent than ever.

The new protocol which it is planned to launch will probably cover only two points. The first will be a solemn declaration by all the nations of the world that offensive warfare constitutes an international crime and must be treated as such. The second point will be a similar solemn pledge of all signatory nations to accept obligatory arbitration as a means of settling all disputes instead of resorting to war.

The limitation of the proposed protocol to these two points, will, it is believed, eliminate virtually all of the objections that were made by various nations to the original Geneva protocol.

ANOTHER RECORD CROWD EXPECTED

Cooler Weather Helps Boost State Fair Attendance on Opening Day Monday

LARGEST ON RECORD

Attendance Mounts to 62,105, Which is 15,000 More Than Opening Day in 1924

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 8.—(U.P.)—Officials of the state board of agriculture today prepared for another record breaking attendance at the state fair.

The fair got away to an auspicious start with an attendance of 62,105 Monday. It was the largest crowd that ever attended the fair in one day and was more than 15,000 larger than the crowd of opening day last year.

Today was designated as governor's day at the fair and Governor Jackson and his staff were to visit the exhibition. Soldiers and children were admitted free today.

Cooler weather that followed last week's heat wave helped boost attendance at the fair opening. Thousands flocked to the grounds early in the day for the Labor day exercises.

William Houston, international organizer for the United Mine Workers of America, delivered the labor day address.

Extra police were hurriedly sent to the fair grounds to help break traffic jams as the crowd grew to such proportions that the special details already on duty were unable to keep it moving through the gates rapidly.

Despite the thousands of autos and the record breaking attendance, not a single accident was reported at the Red Cross headquarters.

Judging of livestock and other exhibits is in progress and first awards have been made.
